(d) If a participant's account balance is $3,500 or less after separation but later increases to more than $3,500, this section will cease to apply to that participant.

(e) This section does not apply to accounts containing a balance of less than $5.00.

Subpart D—In-Service Withdrawals

§ 1650.30 Age-based withdrawals.

(a) A participant who reached age 59½ and who has not separated from Government employment is eligible to withdraw all or a portion of his or her vested TSP account balance in a single payment. The amount of an age-based in-service withdrawal request must be at least $1,000.

(b) The participant may request that the TSP transfer all or a portion of the withdrawal to an Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA) or other eligible retirement plan. If a participant chooses to receive directly all or a portion of the withdrawal, the TSP will withhold for Federal income tax purposes 20 percent of all amounts paid directly to the participant.

(c) A participant is permitted only one age-based in-service withdrawal.

§ 1650.31 Financial hardship withdrawals.

(a) A participant who has not separated from Government employment and who demonstrates financial hardship is eligible to withdraw all or a portion of his or her own contributions to the TSP and their attributable earnings in a single payment to meet certain specified financial obligations. The amount of a financial hardship in-service withdrawal request must be at least $1,000. A participant will demonstrate financial hardship if he or she meets one or both of the following tests:

(1) The participant's monthly cash flow is negative, i.e., net income is less than ordinary monthly household expenses based on TSP calculations; and/or

(2) The participant has incurred or will incur within the next six months an extraordinary expense which he or she has not paid, for which there has not been and will not be reimbursement (as defined in § 1650.1), and which cannot be met by his or her monthly cash flow over a period of six months. Extraordinary expenses are limited to the following four types:

(i) Medical expenses payable by the participant and related to the treatment of the participant, the participant's spouse, or the participant's dependents. Generally, eligible expenses are those that would be eligible for deduction for Federal income tax purposes, but without regard to the Internal Revenue Service's (IRS) income limitations on deductions. However, the following IRS allowable expenses are excluded from TSP unreimbursed medical expenses: health insurance premiums and expenses associated with household improvements required as a result of a medical condition, illness, or injury to the participant, the participant's spouse, or the participant's dependents. These items are already taken into account elsewhere in the financial hardship determination;

(ii) The cost of household improvements required as a result of a medical condition, illness or injury to the participant, the participant's spouse, or the participant's dependents, which is eligible for deduction as a medical expense for Federal income tax purposes, but without regard to the IRS income limitations on deductions or the fair market value of the property. Household improvements are changes to the participant's living quarters or the installation of special equipment that is necessary to accommodate the circumstances of the incapacitated person;

(iii) The cost of repairs or replacement resulting from casualty loss that would be eligible for deduction for Federal income tax purposes, but without regard to the IRS income limitations on deductions, fair market value of the property, or number of events. This is sudden property loss resulting from damage or destruction by fire, storm, or other casualty, or due to theft of property; and

(iv) Legal costs, which are defined as attorney fees and court costs, associated with separation or divorce. Unpaid legal costs do not include alimony or child support payments or settlements a participant must pay a spouse or former spouse.

(b) The amount of a participant's financial hardship withdrawal cannot exceed the smallest of the following:

(1) The amount requested;

(2) The amount in the participant's account that is equal to his or her own contributions and attributable earnings; or

(3) The gross amount which would, subject to a request made under § 1650.42(b), result in a net disbursement to the participant (after the mandatory Federal income tax with holding) of enough funds to both:

(i) Make up the participant's negative cash flow for a period of six months in the case of a financial hardship withdrawal based on ordinary monthly household expenses; and

(ii) Pay the extraordinary expense upon which the participant's financial hardship withdrawal is based. If the participant has a negative cash flow, the amount of the net disbursement based on extraordinary expense is equal to the amount of the extraordinary expense. If there is a positive cash flow, the amount is equal to the amount of the expense minus six times the amount of the calculated monthly positive cash flow.

§ 1650.32 Contributing to the TSP after an in-service withdrawal.

(a) A participant's TSP contribution election will not be affected by an age-based in-service withdrawal; therefore, his or her TSP contributions will continue without interruption.

(b) A participant who obtains a financial hardship in-service withdrawal may not contribute to the TSP for any pay date falling within a period of six months, beginning on the 46th day after the date of the withdrawal and ending 180 days after this beginning date; therefore, his or her TSP contributions (and any applicable matching contributions) will be discontinued by his or her agency upon notification by the TSP. A participant whose TSP contributions were discontinued by his or her agency because of a hardship withdrawal can resume contributions any time after expiration of the six month period by submitting a new TSP Election Form (TSP-1). If a participant voluntarily terminated TSP contributions, he or she can resume contributions at the expiration of the six-month period, or in the next open season during which the participant would be eligible to submit a new Form TSP-1, whichever is later.

§ 1650.33 Uniqueness of loans and withdrawals.

An outstanding TSP loan cannot be converted into an in-service withdrawal, and vice versa; nor can an in-service withdrawal be returned or repaid.
